Water Systems Council Retains The Accord Group as its New Government Affairs Representative

Washington, DC (January 11, 2008) – Water Systems Council (WSC) is pleased to announce that it has retained The Accord Group as its new government affairs representative. As of January 1, The Accord Group will represent WSC in its legislative and government affairs efforts in Washington, D.C. including the annual Hill visits for WSC members at our Spring meeting.

The Accord Group has established a strong reputation for successful advocacy in Washington, D.C. With 125 years of combined experience in Washington, its team possesses a unique set of skills and abilities, which distinguishes it from other government relations firms.

The professionals at The Accord Group have held leadership positions in government, politics, trade associations, media relations, corporate public affairs and communications, consulting and lobbying. The Accord Group has produced a consistent track record of delivering tangible results for its clients on issues that cover a broad array of public policy areas, including the environment and natural resources.

WSC is a national nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting the wider use of wells as modern and affordable safe drinking water systems and to protecting ground water resources nationwide. It is the only national organization solely focused on individual water wells and other private well-based water systems.
